FACTS AND OBSERVATIONS.

A Trip to Olive Hill, Salt Lick and Yale, Kentucky.

On Wednesday morning the writer started East. One of the first observations is that the C. & O. depot has been greatly improved. It has recently passed under the painter's brush, and in red with brown trimmings is a thing of beauty. Thanks to the accommodating and efficient agent, Mr. Claude Paxton.

Our stay at Olive Hill was short. We spent a few minutes at the Olive Hill Fire Brick Co.'s plant. Trade is good. A new office will soon be in readiness. We had a pleasant chat with the Superintendent, Mr. McVain. The day was quite disagreeable, and the roaring fires in the kilns were suggestive of comfort and—something else if you are not good.

We returned to Salt Lick, where we caught the train to Yale. Among the passengers were Reid Patterson and John Peters, of Owingsville, who were out to hunt birds. The train was delayed in leaving, so darkness came on before we reached our destination. If these young gentlemen are as good hunters as they are singers of comic songs somebody will have birds if there are any to be had.

YALE.

After supper we spent a while at the office in E. W. Strack's store. As we expect in our next issue to tell about the big lumber interest, mills, building, etc., located here, we will now give a few items of things in general.

SICK.

James Withrow has typhoid fever.

On Thursday at 1 p. m. Alfred Bailey, aged 20, was very low with peritonitis. His death was expected.

The wife of Chas. Mynher has typhoid fever.

The little daughter of Nancy Mynher has membranous croup and is very sick.

We heard that at Seranton Mrs. L. Yapple and Miss Nate Bates, daughter of Joe Bates, were sick.

DEATH.

The infant of Harlan Powers, the merchant, died with pneumonia on Wednesday, and on Thursday was taken to Morgan county for burial.

One of our new subscribers is James Spence, who married Miss Mollie Ratliff, formerly of this city. He is employed at the E. W. Strack mill.

M. P. Morris and wife have recently located at Quinimont, W. Va.

We met Mr. Stuart, who married Miss Hayden, of this city.

We had a very pleasant and instructive sojourn, and at 1:30 on Thursday we heeded the call, "all aboard," and under the direction of the efficient G. F. Nutter, Train Master, the train arrived at Salt Lick without incident. If for "courtesies" transportation is furnished us over this important line, we will tip our hats.

SALT LICK.

On Tuesday evening, December 4, John Jackson was married to Miss Sophia, daughter of John Maze.

C. H. Whitcomb, aged 70 years, has been confined to his bed for several days.

Mrs. Jack Williams, aged about 60 years, is quite feeble.

The little daughter of Weldy Staton is convalescent from typhoid fever.

Dr. H. S. Pearce has recently occupied his new brick residence. This is the only brick house in town.

Isaac Shouse, the enterprising and prosperous merchant, on Tuesday shipped two car loads of cattle and hogs to Cincinnati.

The I. O. O. F. Lodge will soon erect a two-story 26x50 frame hall. The foundation is now being laid.

We spent a few minutes with the venerable J. H. Maze. He is now 79 years old and stays close at home. His last trip down town was to vote the Democratic ticket. He would like to attend the inauguration of Governor Beckham. For 57 years he has been a member of the Methodist church, having been immersed at the age of 25. He has been married three times.

James Hall made the editor grin by presenting him with a "$100 bill." Whew! Who next?

The merchants report a fine trade.

Miss Myrtle Stout, daughter of W. L. Stout, (near Owingsville) formerly of Montgomery county, will on December 19 be married to Milton Kinsaid.

There are two prayer-meetings each week here. The writer attended at the Christian church on Thursday evening. Rev. R. G. Neal is the preacher. He comes monthly. Rev. G. M. Burnetts is the new pastor of the Methodist church, formerly of Marion county.

On Friday evening, December 21, an entertainment will be given at the Christian church. Prof. Durham, principal of the public school, will be in charge, assisted by Miss Stinson, assistant teacher, and home talent.

A. C. Whitcomb, who has been book-keeper and office manager for W. J. Fell, recently went to Shelby, W. Va., to take charge of the mercantile business of the Lewis Store Company.

We stopped with C. H. Whitcomb. Here we met Mr. Jacobs, who is in charge of the coal bins at Midland City, the suburb of Salt Lick. He was formerly of this city.

C. T. Wilson and James Stockdale, of Mt. Sterling, are hunting birds in the valley.

ROYAL BAKING-POWDER

Absolutely Pure

No inferior or impure ingredients are used in Royal for the purpose of cheapening its cost; only the most highly refined and healthful.

Royal Baking Powder imparts that peculiar sweetness, flavor and delicacy noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, rolls, etc., which expert pastry cooks declare is unobtainable by the use of any other leavening agent.

Alum is used in making cheap baking powders. If you want to know the effect of alum upon the tender things of the stomach, touch it upon your tongue. You can raise biscuit with alum baking powder, but at what a cost to health!

Congress To-day.

The report of the Isthmian Canal Commission submitted to Congress by the President Tuesday gives as the unanimous conclusion of that body that the most practicable and feasible route is that known as the Nicaraguan route. Its cost is estimated at $200,540,000. The Panama route is estimated to cost $142,000,000 to $156,000,000. The Nicaraguan route being near Greytown on the Atlantic side follows the San Juan river, enters Lake Nicaragua, and terminates at Brilo on the Pacific side, a distance from ocean to ocean of about 186 miles.

Senator Fairbanks introduced a bill in the Senate to admit Oklahoma as a State with two Representatives.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Louisville Preacher's Witty Remark at Indianapolis.

There was much comment in Indianapolis over an address of the Rev. Dr. Carter Helm Jones, of Louisville, before the Baptist Social Union, in which he said:

"I am glad to be in your beautiful city. I am one of the Kentuckians that had to come to Indianapolis. I had to come because I wanted to, and did not come saying: 'O dear heaven, have I none.'" This thrust at Taylor and Finley caused nearly everyone in the large audience to smile. It was an elite audience, with several notables present.

Our efforts will constantly be to merit your patronage. COOPER & BARNES.

For Horsemen.

The eleventh annual holiday issue of THE HORSE REVIEW, published at Chicago, Ill., will appear Dec. 11, and all lovers of the trotter and pacer can rest assured that it will prove a genuine treat. A vast amount of instructive and entertaining matter, by the best posted and most noted turf writers, on a large variety of topics, profusely illustrated, will be found within the magnificent chromo-lithographed covers of this special issue. One of its most important features will be the colored supplements of the world's champions. The Abbot 2:03½ and Crescent 2:04. They are not mere colored lithographs or reproductions of idealized paintings, but are immediate replicas of colored photographs, showing both horses in harness, with drivers up, rigged exactly as they were when they captured the world's records now held by them. The price of the Christmas Number, including both of these supplements, is but 25 cents, and it can be had promptly by remitting to the Horse Review Co., 910 Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill.

C. H. DUTY

Elected a Member of the State Election Commission—An Energetic Republican.

Messrs. Poynte and Fulton, the holdover members of the State Election Commission, Tuesday, December 4, elected Chas. H. Duty, of Mt. Sterling, a member of the State Executive Committee in the recent campaign, to the vacancy created by the resignation of Commissioner Yontz.

Mr. Duty was in charge of the Bureau of Organization of the Republican Campaign Committee and is one of the cleanest and brightest young party workers in the State. He has been attending the meeting of the State Election Commission in the interest of Judge O'Rear—Frankfort Cor. to Lexington Leader.

Missed His Assessments.

The Cynthiana Democrat says that one of the peculiar features of the last day of tax collecting Friday was that up to noon no less than 114 citizens of Harrison county had appeared against whom no assessment had been levied either by the Assessors or Supervisors. One farmer owned 197 acres of land and another 115. The total taxes missed in the bunch aggregated $1,140—quite an item to the county and State.

A COLUMN OF MEDICINE TWO THOUSAND FEET HIGH.

A United States Senator's Letter.

UNITED STATES SENATOR McENERY, OF LOUISIANA.
Hon. S. D. McENERY, United States Senator from Louisiana, says the following in regard to Peruna:
Peruna Drug Manufacturing Co., Columbus, Ohio:
Gentlemen—Peruna is an excellent cathartic.
I say that I believe it to be the best of its kind.
Very Respectfully, S. D. McENERY.

Three Car Loads Daily.

To meet the demands for Peruna as a cathartic remedy during the fall and winter three car loads per day is required. Few people comprehend what an immense amount of Peruna this is. In the eighteen hundred bottles of Peruna, each bottle containing twenty ounces, this amounts to twenty thousand six hundred bottles, or four hundred and thirty-two thousand ounces, or three million four hundred and fifty-six thousand pounds. Three car loads of bottles of Peruna placed end to end in a single row would extend over four and a half miles; if arranged in a column one foot square they would make a column nearly two thousand feet high, four times as high as the highest cathedral tower in Europe, and nearly twice as high as the famous Eiffel tower. Remember, this amount of Peruna is shipped daily to meet the enormous demand for this wonderful cathartic remedy.

The facilities of the Peruna Medicine Company are taxed to their utmost to keep up this remarkable output, week after week, and month after month. This ever-increasing stream of Peruna finds its way into thousands of homes in every state in the Union.

Peruna is as efficacious to cure the winter catarrh of New England as the summer catarrh of Texas. Peruna is an absolute panacea for the climatic diseases of summer and winter. It is the safeguard of the home and the life-saver of the soldier. Mrs. O. T. McEnergy, of Louisiana, writes: "I was taken with catarrh of the head. I tried several doctors and all the patent medicines I could hear recommended for catarrh. I spent several hundred dollars and found no relief. I was gradually growing worse and was given up to die. Last September Peruna was recommended to me by a friend and I began to take it. I had no faith in anything any more, as I was not able to sit up, and was a mere skeleton. After I had taken one bottle of Peruna I began to improve. I am now taking the ninth bottle and believe myself to be permanently cured. I have discharged my bowels, and my bowels work as well as ever. I weigh 135 pounds. Although I am 41 years old I feel as well as I did at 20." Contrary to the statement in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman as to the merits of Peruna, she says:

"Your remedy Peruna has cured my bowels entirely of catarrhal troubles and now I have three of the healthiest boys in the state of Iowa, which I attribute to the good effect of your medicine. My wife had a stomach trouble which Peruna cured. Altogether for my whole family we have saved four doctor bills. I am a contractor and mason by trade and am known all over Northwestern Iowa. I have been having my bowels work again, and I have been greatly relieved by your remedy Peruna. We think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

Mrs. Elizabeth Gray, New Athens, Ill., says: "For two years I had catarrh of the nose very bad. Sometimes it was so bad that I could not sleep at night. I doctored with two physicians, but they did not help me. I read about Peruna in the paper and got a bottle of it. I then wrote to Dr. Hartman and he said I should continue to take it. I took it until I was entirely well. Whoever follows Dr. Hartman's advice will get well."

Are the nostrils stopped up? Is first one and then the other nostril stopped up? Is there discharge from the nose? Is there dripping from the back of the nose into the throat? Is your sense of smell affected? Do you have pain in the nose? Does your nose smart? Do you sneeze often? Are you troubled with nose bleed? Do you blow your nose frequently? Is the discharge from your nose green or thin? Is your breath offensive? Do you snore while lying on your side?

If so, you have chronic nasal catarrh and should attend to the matter at once. A short course of Peruna will cure you now, but if you put it off it will take longer. Besides the disease is liable to spread to the throat and lungs.

Free tokens on catarrh sent by The Peruna Drug Mfg Co., Columbus, O.

Cause of Bloodshed.

As long as whiskey is sold to rouse the evil and reckless daring of men, and the punishment meted out is so light in proportion to the offense, just so long will Kentucky's blue grass be stained with blood.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

A BELGIAN PIGEON.

Follows an English Locomotive Out on All its Traps.

"The Guillemins pigeon" is noted character in Belgium. Nearly every day since the beginning of February this bird has started from the Guillemins station in Liege, with the fast Brussels express and accompanied the train for from 12 to 25 miles.

The people living along the Meuse know and look out for him, and the start arouses great interest among passengers, railway men and others who come to the station just to see him off.

He is seen flying about for half an hour before the train starts, and as soon as it is made up he takes his station on a perch near the engine. When the whistle sounds he flies to the next train, where the train halt, to take a second engine for an engine.

When the train finally starts the pigeon leaves his post and follows over the locomotive, keeping as far as possible in the dense smoke and steam that pour from the smokestack.

The train makes no stops and travels 50 miles an hour, but the bird always keeps up with it, flying under bridges and viaducts, where he smokes must be stifling.

After abandoning the train he returns to the station, keeping as before near the track and flying under bridges.

The bird was reared in a dovecote on the embankment, and when this was removed he took up his quarters in the station, becoming so tame that he did not mind the railway.

Wind, rain and snow have never deterred him from taking his daily excursion.

On two or three days, however, he remained at the station, and it is a singular fact, that, on these occasions the train was not drawn by its usual English locomotive. Quite recently he has been observed occasionally to follow an American train, which also has an English locomotive.

These English locomotives use a special fuel, made up into bricks, which contains a large amount of pitch, and they are the only ones on the line that do so. It would seem, therefore, that the odor of the smoke is what attracts this erratic bird.—Philadelphia Press.

OFFENSIVE AND DEFENSIVE.

Cyclist's Novel Method of Escaping from a Lion.

The novel method adopted by an English bicyclist in Africa, Mr. A. B. Lloyd, to escape from a lion, is thus narrated:

One morning Mr. Lloyd started on his wheel for a village a few miles from the mission station. He took the main road to Uganda, which was a good thoroughfare about five feet wide. After climbing a long hill he came to the descent on the other side, a long, gentle slope, where he knew the road was smooth.

Up went his feet on the coasters, and away he flew down the hill, going faster every minute. Near the bottom of the hill was a turn. On approaching this, he again put his feet to the pedals.

As he rounded the curve a terrible light burst upon him. In the middle of the narrow path lay a full-grown lion, its head down upon its jaws, facing up the hill.

Mr. Lloyd could not stop, or if he did stop, it would be in the very jaws of the king of the forest. To the left was a wall of rock 20 feet high, and to the right a steep embankment with a river a hundred feet below. Escape seemed impossible.

Suddenly he remembered that the wild men he had met were always afraid of his bicycle. Perhaps a wild beast might be affected in the same way. Therefore, he did the only thing he could do. Releasing his check on the wheel, ringing his bell, and shouting with all the power of his lungs, he forced the bicycle at its best speed directly toward the conch lion.

The beast raised its head. Then, seeing this unearthly creature, with so strange a voice, rushing fearfully upon it, it gave a blood-curdling yelp, and sprang to one side just as the rider passed.

A Death of Boys.

There is said to be a great death of boys in London. One railway company complained that no fewer than 60 of their vans were without van guards because boys could not be obtained.

VENTRILQUIISM.

Art That Appealed to the Superstition in Past Ages.

Ventriloquism is now an amusement, but it used to be a very serious business. To the old religious ones, and without it nearly all their oracles and talking statues would have been dumb. In Persia, Greece and Egypt the ventriloquist was made much of, and secured for the mysteries. The people then feared him now they laugh at him.

But they only laugh at him in civilized countries, says Golden Days. In Persia, for instance, the ventriloquist is still a power, or was some years ago, as the event here related clearly shows. A man there died, and to discover the cause of his death, the tribe was assembled. In the center of a large hall there was put a roughly-cut wooden doll, a symbol of some native deity, daily decorated with the appropriate mystical ornaments.

Into the hall the people were brought, and the fetishism, or priest—feathers and bells complete—began his violently exciting address. When he had worked sufficiently on the feelings of the audience, he talked to the idol—and the idol replied.

He asked if the dead man were satisfied with his funeral, and from the wooden lips came words of thanks, and in reply to other questions the idol expressed its approval of all that had been done.

Then came the supreme moment. The fetishism asked the doll to name the man murderer. Dead was the silence in the hall. One by one the name was given of every person there, and to each name the idol answered: "No!" But when at last came the name of one who had refused to pay the customary fee for the services of the fetishism the idol joyfully said: "Yes!" And off went the victim to be tortured and slain. Such was the use of ventriloquism on the west coast of Africa in 1886.

Not so very long ago there was a negro in the Island of St. Thomas, who used to divine on the same lines, taking about with him a clay snake he had roughly made. In his hand the same sort of thing is going on to-day, and the voices come to condemn from even the trees and the rivers.

This carries us back again to the past. Did not the tree speak to Apollonius at the command of the Egyptian gymnosophist in a feeble voice like that of a woman? Did not the oaks of Dodona answer questions in every branch? Did not Pythagoras talk to the River Nesses, and receive for a reply the equivalent to "Good-morning, Pythagoras?"

At Fernando Po, on the African west coast, there still exists the veneration of Umo, and great is the veneration for the grotesque in which rites are held. At the height of the excitement the priest stands alone, and the worshippers by one lay their gifts before him, asking him to question Umo on some matter in which they are concerned. Soon the priest becomes troubled in look, and tells the crowd of eager listeners that Umo is approaching. Then from the ground comes a sonorous voice, and to every question put the voice replies. It is Umo who is talking, but who is Umo?

A similar scene was described by Captain Lyon as taking place among the Eskimos at Igloolik. The ceremony consisted to invite the spirit of Torga if adequately paid. The presents were given, and Torga came. The lights were put out, and the sorcerer began his chant, ending in an appeal to Torga to present himself. Suddenly his voice became muffled, and as he spoke seemed to come from further and further away, dropping to whisper and stopping altogether. It had gone in search of Torga.

In about a minute the whisper was heard again, increasing in strength, and seemingly approaching, accompanied by another voice, loud and harsh, and very different. The loud, harsh voice said a few words, made itself generally agreeable, and then took its departure, speaking even more shyly as it went, and subsiding in a whisper that was cut short by the full voice of the priest.

$1,000 Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurness of Wells Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and suffering with a constant pain. Other men in distress only gave relief. After taking Kodol's Kidney Cure the result was inspiring. A few doses arrested the back pain, like blue stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys and feel like a new man. Kodol's Kidney Cure has done me $1,000 worth of good." SORES AND ULCERS

That old sore or ulcer, which has been a source of pain, worry and anxiety to you for five or ten years—maybe longer—doesn't heal because you are not using the proper treatment, but are trying to cure it with salves and washes. While these are soothing and relieve pain to some extent, no real, permanent good can come from their use, because the disease is in the blood and far beyond the reach of external applications.

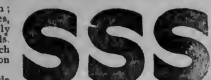

A sore heals promptly when the blood is in good condition, but never if it is diseased. The tendency of these old sores and ulcers is to grow worse, spreading and eating deeper into the flesh. They are a constant drain upon the system, gradually but surely ruin the health and sap the very life. A person's capacity for work or pleasure is soon lost in the great desire and search for something to cure. S. S. S. cures a rapid and permanent cure of old sores and ulcers, and is the only medicine that cures, because no other can reach deep-seated blood troubles. Ordinary Sassaaparilla and potash mixtures are too weak and watery to overcome a deadly poison that has taken possession of the blood. Do not waste valuable time experimenting with them.

A Gunshot Wound. "Some years ago I was shot in the left leg, receiving what I considered only a slight wound. It developed into a running sore and gave me a great deal of pain. I was treated by many doctors, and took a number of blood remedies, but none did me any good. I had heard S. S. S. highly recommended and concluded to give it a trial. The result was truly gratifying. S. S. S. seemed to get right at the trouble, and forced the poison out of my blood; soon afterwards the sore healed up and was cured sound and well. I now have perfect use of the leg, which was swollen and very stiff for a long time. I, H. McNamee, Lawrenceburg, Ky."

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known; it is made of roots and herbs of wonderful purifying properties, which no poison can resist. S. S. S. quickly and effectively cleanses the blood of all morbid, unwholesome humors, and the only, irrefragable cure for skin diseases. At the same time the general health is invigorated and built up. When a little scratch or put it in order and keep it so.

Our Medical Department is in charge of experienced physicians, who have made a specialty of skin diseases. If you will write them about your case, they will gladly furnish all information or advice wanted, without any charge whatever. Address SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, G.

"Well, well," exclaimed Jenkins, throwing down his paper, "another eloquent thing. There have come to a pretty pass when you can't trust your best friend." "Ah! It's worse than that," remarked Harduppe. "It's gotten so that a fellow can't get his best friend to trust him."—Philadelphia Press.

A dark, grainy, black and white photograph showing a landscape with a body of water and a distant shoreline under a cloudy sky. The foreground is mostly black, suggesting a dark shore or water. In the middle ground, there's a faint, light-colored area that could be a beach or a distant town. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The overall image has a vintage, high-contrast aesthetic.

The farm contains about 500 acres and the price paid was $90 per acre. This is one of the finest farms in Kentucky, with every foot in blue grass except about fifteen acres, 200 acres being virgin soil. It is a well improved farm, with a modern residence, gas and hot and cold water, a good orchard and all necessary outbuildings with a turn pike at the door. Possession will be given January 15, 1901, and the deal was in exchange for cash. Mr. Henry Pickrell will be with his son on the farm. The farm will not be broken and Mr. Pickrell will become the ruler of fine stock and poultry, driving the best of his line to it.

He has selected "Spartans" as the play and the box office on Thursday next will attest the wisdom of his choice. Of course it goes without saying that the engagement of Mr. Griffith would mean a crowded house under any circumstances, but Mr. Griffith as "Spartans" means the greatest tragic event we can hope to look forward to in local theatricals this season. Those who have seen Forrest and McCullough in this great role will want to see Griffith, and to those who have never seen "Spartans" the admonition is, "do not miss it." Seats on sale at 10c.

COUGHS KILL

We know of nothing better than coughing to tear the lining of your throat and lungs. It is better than wet feet to cause bronchitis and pneumonia. Only keep it up and you will succeed in reducing your weight, losing your appetite, bringing on a slow fever, and making everything exactly right for the germs of consumption. Better kill your cough before it kills you.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

kills coughs of every kind. A 25 cent bottle is just right for an ordinary cough; for the harder coughs of bronchitis you will need a 50 cent bottle; for the coughs of consumption the one dollar size is most economical.

"My cough reduced me to a mere skeleton. I tried every remedy, but they all failed. After using the Cherry Pectoral, immediately began to improve, and three bottles brought me to health. I believe I owe my life to it."

Beware of the Hare.

The Belgian hare had, like the German carp, promises an early collapse. In California, where the hare started, a great deal of money was invested by rabbitries in which to breed the big hares, and in advertising the meat as a delicate morsel not to be obtained from any other animal on the face of the earth. Also many rabbitries are closed and the owners of the same have been brought to realize that the meat of a Belgian hare is not as good as that of a jack rabbit and are in mourning for the customers that did not come and invest their wealth in an animal whose meat as food is nothing to compare to our wild gray rabbits. The meat of the hare is dark, coarse, unwholesome, and lacks the juicy, delicate game flavor of the little cotton tails—Covington Commonwealth.

Nature makes all things beautiful in their line. Every one of life's seasons, when life moves on Nature's blue, has its own charm and beauty. Many women dread that period when they must experience change of life. They fear that face and form may suffer by the change, and that they may fail to please those whom they love. The value of Dr. F. C. Dunn's Favorite Prescription in this crisis of women's lives lies in the fact that it assists Nature. Its use preserves the balance and buoyancy of the mind and sustains the physical powers. Many women have expressed their gratitude for the help and comfort given by "Favorite Prescription" in this trying period. Its benefit is not passing but permanent and conducive to mental happiness as well as physical strength.

IN MEMORIAM.

Silas B. Metcalfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Metcalfe, was suddenly called after taking part in the Thanksgiving festivities of last year.

A year ago, and God did claim Her son—her children—whose name Was synonym for truth and love, And thence she can look above To Him who this dread deed has wrought With trust, and peace, and rev'rent thought?

A year ago within that year Another had dropped tear on tear O'er life devoid of hope or joy; But she doth rest assured her boy, Where sorrow never comes, nor sin, In stainless youth hath entered in.

Through gates of pearl, on streets of gold Most heaven's glories manifold, White angels chant of vict'ries won, She shall regain her manly son; With Christ and him shall join away, Rerity's Thanksgiving Day.

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. Little menstrual disorders started at that time soon grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are killing graveyards proves this. Wine of Cardui establishes a painless and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Many women, young and old, owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. There is nothing like it to give women freedom from pain and to fit young women for every day of life. $1.00 bottles at druggists.

Miss Della M. Streyer, Tully, Kan. "I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time, was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything. In fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui, with Theodore's Black-Draught, when needed, and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me."
